

BETHPAGE HIGH SCHOOL
PTSA MEETING
November 6, 2007

The meeting was called to order at 7:35 pm by President Linda Mangano with the Pledge of Allegiance. The minutes of the October meeting were reviewed. A motion was made to accept the minutes by Jackie LaRose and Michele Yurman. Motion Accepted.

Treasurers Report: Balance on hand as of October 31, 2007 was $4,597 .98

Presidents Report: Linda reviewed various items:

- Home Coming was a success. Thanks to all the volunteers.
- Parent Teacher Conferences: we sold Eagle wear. We raised over $350.00.
- Red Ribbon Week was October 22-31. A 4foot by 8 foot banner was purchased and is displayed by the tennis courts.
- Textiles: in March a one day donation event will take place. Start saving old clothes, Blankets, Etc. Please spread the word to family and friends.
- Train Show will be January 19th. We are looking for a company to have an Antique and Collectible Show with the train show. Roxanne Ong has volunteered to sell our old books during the show.
- Book fair will be May 19, 20 and 21st. Held during the budget vote.

Site Base Report: Lockers are being refurbished. The cones to be used during morning drop off have made a big difference. Honor roll qualifications.

Teachers Report: Mr. Whittemore Discussed Concerns over healthy food in the lunchroom. Aramark will be supplying healthier choices. Spanish club and French club had car wash fundraisers. Italian club had its feast on September 19th. Mr. Whittemore mentioned several students getting awards.

Old Business:

- Dads Club – Needs volunteers for Wrestling Tournament December 8th. Still selling mini calendars.
- Membership has 481 new members.
- PTA Council discussed the Eagle Walk. Presidents/Principals dinner November 19th.
- Board of ED Concerns over MRSA was discussed and high school students reading to the third graders.
- Entertainment books still for sale. An ad was put in the tribune.
- Mom’s and Dad’s for Music next meeting will be November 20th. Long Island String Festival, Cabaret Night, in need of elementary school reps,

Newsday Marching Band Festival was October 18th, Selling entertainment books, Changes in website, March 14 and 15 NYSMA held at JFK. Bethpageradio.Com. to hear concerts or sports announcing.

New Business:

- Reminder regarding SEPTA fundraiser at Walt Whitman Mall and Roosevelt Field Friday November 9th.

Meeting Adjourned at 8:25 pm