

BETHPAGE UNION FREE SCHOOL DISTRICT
Bethpage, New York
BOARD OF EDUCATION
Regular Meeting

January 26, 2010 – 8:00 p.m. – Bethpage High School Little Theater

Mr. Frost called the meeting to order at approximately 8:03 p.m. and led everyone in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Present: Tom Frost, President; Kurt Spears, Vice President; Joel S. Dauman; Anna Israelton; Michael J. Kelly; James A. McGlynn; and Sandra Watson.

Also Present: Terrence Clark, Superintendent; John DeTommaso, Assistant Superintendent for Instruction & Technology; Caroline Lavelle, Assistant Superintendent for Human Resources; Joseph Marchesiello, Assistant Superintendent for Business; Patricia Hantzidiamantis, Executive Director of Pupil Personnel Services; and Laura Granelli, Esq., of Jaspan Schlesinger LLP.

Approximately 30 members of the public were present at the beginning of the meeting.

PRESENTATIONS

Mr. Clark stated that the District was honored to host the inauguration of County Executive Ed Mangano on January 1st at Bethpage High School, his alma mater. The ceremony took place in the Center for Performing Arts, with an overflow crowd in the Little Theater and the gymnasium. Mr. Clark then introduced the stage and lighting crew, which consisted of six talented and capable students who helped out behind the scenes. These students did a phenomenal job and received accolades from all of the outside organizations that participated in the inauguration (the Police Department, Hofstra University, etc.). Then Mr. Frost and Mr. Clark presented the students with certificates of appreciation, and the audience gave them a round of applause.

This was followed by a PowerPoint presentation by Mr. DeTommaso entitled, “Bethpage Schools and the SAT Status Report.” He reviewed the various methods that have been utilized over the past few years which successfully raised the SAT scores consistently, year after year. The residents were pleased with the progress that is being made and showed their appreciation with a round of applause.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

- All five schools are participating in various types of fund-raising for the people of Haiti, who suffered a disastrous earthquake. Our hearts go out to the Haitians.
- There was a terrific demonstration of "Foundations" at the June 19th Board Meeting by five kindergarten students.
- Newsday published an article today concerning FutureCorps projects, whereby students from Kramer Lane and other districts are recycling bags and bottles.
- Within the next two weeks, eighth and tenth graders will be participating in the PRIDE survey during their physical education classes.
- Last Friday, Cablevision's "Meet the Leaders" program was held at BHS, and County Executive Mangano was interviewed by Pat Halpin, host of the show. Afterward, three BHS students were also invited to interview our new County Executive. It was a wonderful experience for the students.
- Recently, the BHS Cheerleaders taught some cheers to members of the Bethpage Senior Citizens Club, and the both groups entertained during halftime at a recent basketball game. To show their appreciation, the senior citizens have invited the cheerleaders to their meeting tomorrow and are planning a surprise.
- There was a very successful Science and Technology Open House at JFK last week.
- Thank you to SEPTA for arranging the Winter Wonderland, which was a lot of fun for all.
- February 5th will be TGIF for JFK students, to be held at BHS.
- Family Math Day is scheduled for April 17th at Berner Middle School, Massapequa. Registration is online.
- If you are interested in volunteering for the Citizens' Budget Advisory Committee, please call the Business Office. The first meeting is February 4th.
